HD CHANNELS IN THE BLUE RIDGE CABLE CHANNEL GUIDE

High-definition (HD) viewing has become standard for most households. The Blue Ridge Cable Channel Guide clearly marks which channels are available in HD. Most major networks and popular cable channels now broadcast in high definition. To access HD content, you need an HD-compatible television and a digital receiver from Blue Ridge Cable. The HD channels typically mirror the standard channels but are listed at a different number in the guide. For example, if ESPN is on channel 35 in standard definition, the HD version might be on channel 735. Always check the guide for the HD designation to enjoy the sharpest picture quality available.

HOW TO FIND SPECIFIC CHANNELS IN THE GUIDE

Navigating the Blue Ridge Cable channel guide efficiently can save you time. Here are some tips:

- Use the Search Function - If your remote has a search button, type the name of the network or show you want to find. The guide will display all relevant listings.

- Browse by Category - Most on-screen guides allow you to filter channels by category such as "Sports," "Movies," or "Kids." This is helpful if you are in the mood for a specific type of programming.
- Set Favorites - You can create a custom list of favorite channels. Once set, you can scroll only through your favorites, skipping past channels you never watch.
- Check the Time Slot - The guide shows programming for the next several hours or days. You can scroll forward to plan your evening or set DVR recordings in advance.

PACKAGES AND PRICING

Blue Ridge Cable offers several television packages to suit different viewing habits and budgets. The Blue Ridge Cable channel guide will look slightly different depending on which package you choose. Typical packages include:

Basic or Limited Basic Package

This entry-level package includes local broadcast channels, public access, and a small selection of cable networks. It is ideal for viewers who primarily watch news, local programming, and a few favorite shows. Channels are limited but affordable.

Expanded Basic Package

The most popular choice among subscribers, this package adds dozens of popular cable networks across all genres. The Blue Ridge Cable channel guide for this package includes ESPN, TBS, TNT, Discovery, HGTV, Nickelodeon, and many more. This tier offers a solid balance of content and value.

Preferred or

Premium Package

For the ultimate viewing experience, the preferred package includes everything in Expanded Basic plus additional channels such as NFL RedZone, MLB Network, NBA TV, Hallmark Movies & Mysteries, and other niche networks. This package is best for sports fans and viewers who want the widest selection.

Premium Add-

Ons

Regardless of your base package, you can add premium movie channels like HBO, Showtime, Starz, and Cinemax for an additional monthly fee. These channels are clearly labeled in the Blue Ridge Cable channel guide and often include multiple sub-channels (e.g., HBO 2, HBO Family, HBO Signature).

DVR AND ON-DEMAND FEATURES

Beyond the live channel guide, Blue Ridge Cable offers DVR service and an extensive On-Demand library. With DVR, you can record shows from any channel in your package and watch them at your convenience. The on-screen Blue Ridge Cable channel guide allows you to browse upcoming programs and schedule recordings with a single button press. On-Demand content includes movies, full seasons of TV shows, and special events that you can start watching instantly without needing to record.

TIPS FOR GETTING THE MOST OUT OF YOUR CHANNEL GUIDE

Here are a few actionable tips to enhance your experience with the Blue Ridge Cable channel guide:

- Update Your Guide Regularly - Channel lineups can change when networks rebrand or new channels are added. Check for guide updates every few months to ensure your listings are accurate.

- Use the Parental Controls - If you have children, use the parental control features available through the guide. You can lock specific channels or set rating limits to prevent inappropriate content from being viewed.
- Take Advantage of Free Previews - Occasionally, Blue Ridge Cable offers free preview weekends for premium channels. During these times, the Blue Ridge Cable channel guide will show premium content even if you do not subscribe. This is a great way to sample channels before adding them to your package.
- Bookmark Your Favorite Channels - Most digital receivers allow you to create a favorites list.

This makes the guide faster to navigate because you only see the channels you actually watch.

- Check the Guide Online for Mobility - If you are away from home, use the Blue Ridge Cable website or mobile app to check listings and set DVR recordings remotely. This is especially handy when you remember a show you want to record while at work or running errands.

COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE BLUE RIDGE CABLE CHANNEL GUIDE

How often is the channel guide updated?

The guide is updated daily to reflect schedule changes, new episodes, and live event programming. Channel lineups are updated less frequently, usually when a network is added or removed from a package.

Can I customize

the order of channels in my guide?

While you cannot permanently renumber channels, you can create a favorites list that shows only your preferred channels. This effectively creates a customized guide experience.

Is there a

Spanish language channel guide?

Blue Ridge Cable offers select Spanish-language networks such as Univision, Telemundo, and Galavisión. The on-screen guide typically displays channel names in English, but programming descriptions may be available in Spanish for specific
